DE Students Hold Career Assembly

On November 19 a career assembly was held at Appomattox County High School. The assembly was presented to the students concerning Distributive Education.

Five of the D.E. students gave talks on their jobs including such things as job requirements, wages and promotions, working conditions, and the likes and dislikes of the jobs.

The five students giving the talks were Bud Moses from Moores Machinery and Welding Shop, Reresa Rankins from Bessie's Snack Bar, Tye Beasley from Kings Market, (meat department), Allan Harris from Pamplin Exxon, and Mark Barnett from Wilbun's Super Market (bag boy and stock clerk). They are shown above with Mr. Jack Hutcheson, Distributive Education teacher at ACHS. During the assembly Mr. Hutcheson gave a talk on his job and the qualifications.

There was a good turn-out from the student body and everyone was very pleased with the program. The Career Council would like to thank those who were responsible for the presentation of this fine program.

Until the meeting last week, Calvin McGahuey had been our only male member in the Appomattox TOPS chapter. Calvin, with his wife, Rachel, joined our chapter and became such a popular member, that recently he was elected Treasurer. Rachel is his very able assistant.

Then at the November 17 meeting, Robert Foster, Jr. became a member. When asked why he had joined, Robert said it was because of his wife, Linda who is a TOPS member, also. He said that it would make it easier on her if she could prepare the same foods for the both of them at mealtime.

When a family joins TOPS, it makes it just that little bit easier on the dieters, because they can help support each other in their struggle to diet. TOPS is very proud of these two husband and wife teams!

At the November 14 meeting Co-Leader Bobbie Mullins presided and gave the lecture. Bobbie pointed out that "tasting" can ruin your diet plan for the day or even the week. Remember that each little "taste" is loaded with calories and can really add up by the end of the day.

TOPS members lost 42½ pounds this week. Let's don't find it again at the Thanksgiving table!

The winners in our "mystery Contest are Jean Totty and Kathleen Garlick. Congratulations, Girl! We will start a Christmas Contest next week.

Extension agent, Mrs. Shirley Walton, will be the guest of TOPS next week. Shirley will show the members how to make Christmas decorations and every one should make an extra effort to stay for this meeting!

EVERYONE HAVE A VERY HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

CHRISTMAS CRAFTS was the subject of the program November 20th for the Junior Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America. Mrs. Shirley Walton, of the VPI Extension Office was the guest speaker. Mrs. Walton presented many inexpensive ideas for gifts and decorations for the Christmas season.

"Our farm and ranch lands are the most valuable asset in this country", the Secretary said. "From them comes the food on our tables and the shirts on our backs. They also provide us with our most important export commodities"

But he warned that billions of tons of topsoil continue to be washed or blown away annually through careless farming and construction practices.

"A lot of that soil ends up as sediment in rivers and lakes, polluting water and resulting in expensive dredging bills. We've known for many years how to keep the soil on the land -- but too many people haven't bothered to apply the knowledge."

He priased many soil conservation " cooperators" who already practice conservation farming and ranching and asked them to join "in urging their neighbors to get aboard the conservation bandwagon."

"Farmers are always more willing to listen to other farmers than to so-called experts anyway," the Secretary said.

A voluntary conservation drive of the dimensions the Secretary has in mind could keep an estimated 1 to 2 billion tons of soil on land that might otherwise be eroded away each year.

"This is Thanksgiving Day . . how can you express your gratitude to God for His many blessings? The answer is stated simply in Romans 12:1, which says, 'I beseech you, brethern, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice.' This is the sacrifice of Thanksgiving every Christian can and should make. God wants your body - your tongue to speak His praise, your hands to do His work, and your feet to run with the Gospel of peace.

You can't truly give thanks unless you live thanks.

The National Enquirer, which has the largest circulation of any paper in the world, carried an article concerning Appomattox in its November 25th issue. It told how the first battle of the Civil War, the battle of Bull River, was fought near Manassass on the former Wilbur McLean's estate, "Yorkshire." McLean, trying to escape the fighting, bought a tavern 150 miles away called "Clovercliff" in newly former Appomattox County. This is where the peace treaty was signed four years later ending a war in the parlor of the man on whose farm it began.

Attention Hunters: Please show more consideration during the rest of hunting season than has been shown so far.

Residents request that you refrain from shooting so close to their homes. Please stop blocking public roads with hunting vehicles because it is dangerous as well as a nuisance to non-hunters.
